B. Course Learning Outcomes (CLO) covered

At the end of this assessment, students are able to:

1. CLO 1: read and explain the meaning of the full text;
2. CLO 2: speak in various situations using simple sentences and compound sentences;
3. CLO 3: Organize ideas creatively and systematically in writing simple essay.

C. University Policy on Academic Misconduct

1. Academic misconduct is a serious offense in Xiamen University Malaysia. It can be defined as any of the following:
   i. Plagiarism is submitting or presenting someone else's work, words, ideas, data or information as your own intentionally or unintentionally. This includes incorporating published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form into your work without acknowledging the source (the person and the work).
   ii. Collusion is two or more people collaborating on a piece of work (in part or whole) which is intended to be wholly individual and passed it off as own individual work.

iii. Cheating is an act of dishonesty or fraud in order to gain an unfair advantage in an assessment. This includes using or attempting to use, or assisting another to use materials that are prohibited or inappropriate, commissioning work from a third party, falsifying data, or breaching any examination rules.

2. All the assessments submitted must be the outcome of the student. Any form of academic misconduct is a serious offense, which penalized by being given a zero mark for the entire assessment in question or part of the assessment in question. If there is more than one guilty party as in the case of collusion, both you and your collusion partner(s) are subjected to the same penalty.

D. Task

1. Using the same group (8 peoples), you will now collaborate to create a video presentation.
2. Your group will produce a video titled:

"TEROKA BUDAYA TEMPATAN"

EXPLORING LOCAL CULTURE

3. You need to select only one topic from the option below.
    1. Traditional food and local delicacies
    2. Traditional clothing and attire
    3. Cultural attractions or heritage sites
    4. Festivals, arts, or customs

4. All members must actively participate and appear in the video, demonstrating strong group interaction and teamwork throughout. While the presentation is a group effort, each member will be individually assessed based on their participation, contribution, and performance in the video.
5. The entire video must be presented in Bahasa Melayu Malaysia.

6. You are encouraged to include dialogue, storyline, or any other creative content to make it engaging and interesting.
7. The video structure should include the following content:

   I. Introduction

   a) Each team member should introduce themselves.

   II. Content

   a) Discuss at least three (3) aspects of the chosen topics that were new to you.

   b) Provide clear and thorough explanations for each the topic and each aspect, sharing personal experiences rather than using external clips or sources.

   III. Conclusion

   a) Conclude the video with a brief and appropriate closing statement.
8. Voice-over or dubbing is allowed, but it must be mixed with direct, live voice recordings. The video should feature a blend of both, with no reliance solely on added audio layers or post-production voice modifications.

E. Instruction to Students

1. The video must be filmed together with all members.
2. The video should have a duration of 5 to 15 minutes, ideally around 10 minutes.
3. The presentation style and video recording are up to your creativity.
4. Only the group leader will submit the files on behalf of the team. Ensure the cover page includes all teammates' names and ID numbers as listed on their student ID cards.
5. Upload your video to an accessible platform and provide the video link in the cover page of your submission on Moodle. Ensure there are no access restrictions, and that the video is fully accessible for viewing and downloading.
6. The submission deadline is Week 12, 19th December 2025, Friday, before 5:00 PM, via ONLINE submission in Moodle. Late submissions will result in a deduction of HALF (1/2) from the overall marks.
7. The group leader must sign the Own Work Declaration section (2nd page of the cover page) on behalf of the group.
