DESCRIPTION OF COURSEWORK

Course Code	EEE324*
Course Name	DATA COMMUNICATION NETWORKS
Lecturer	Associate Prof. Dr. Zulkifly Abbas
Academic Session	2024/09
Assessment Title	Assignment 2: TCP/IP for Data Acquisition and Control

A. Introduction/ Situation/ Background Information

A LAN connection is necessary for remote control of the instrument, and for access from a computer using a web browser. You can connect the instrument to a local area network (LAN), or directly to a computer. To identify theinstrument in the network, you need the IP address of the instrument. The network card can be operated usually with a 10 Mbps Ethernet IEEE 802.3 or a 100 Mbps Ethernet IEEE 802.3u interface. To establish a network connection, connect a commercial RJ-45 cable to one of the LAN ports of the instrument and to a PC.

B. Course Learning Outcomes (CLO) covered

At the end of this assessment, students are able to:

CLO 2 Analyse complex engineering problems and appropriate networking systems through various fundamentals of data communication networks.

C. University Policy on Academic Misconduct

1. Academic misconduct is a serious offense in Xiamen University Malaysia. It can be defined as any of the following:
   i. Plagiarism is submitting or presenting someone else's work, words, ideas, data or information as your own intentionally or unintentionally. This includes incorporating published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form into your work without acknowledging the source (the person and the work).
