DESCRIPTION OF CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT

Course Code	G0125
Course Name	Introduction to Global Mandarin
Lecturer	Khoo Kiak Uei
Academic Session	2022/02
Assessment Title	Final Assignment – 40%

A. Introduction/ Situation/ Background Information

The scope of study within the field of Global Mandarin Study covers a wide range of areas including linguistic and applied linguistic studies, and also language education and language planning. We have covered most of the aspects under the scope of Global Mandarin Study in our lectures, with elaborations of case studies from different Mandarin speaking communities globally. However, as a newly established field of study, the focus of study and the research topics within the scope is still in a state of continued debate and fine tuning.

B. Course Learning Outcomes (CLO) covered

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1 : Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of Mandarin globalization trend and its impact.
CLO 2 : Display an appreciation of the linguistic and societal variations among different members of the Global Mandarin.

C. University Policy on Academic Misconduct

1. Academic misconduct is a serious offense in Xiamen University Malaysia. It can be defined as any of the following:

i. Plagiarism is submitting or presenting someone else's work, words, ideas, data or information as your own intentionally or unintentionally. This includes incorporating published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form into your work without acknowledging the source (the person and the work).

ii. Collusion is two or more people collaborating on a piece of work (in part or whole) which is intended to be wholly individual and passed it off as own individual work.

iii. Cheating is an act of dishonesty or fraud in order to gain an unfair advantage in an assessment. This includes using or attempting to use, or assisting another to use materials that are prohibited or inappropriate, commissioning work from a third party, falsifying data, or breaching any examination rules.

2. All the assessment submitted must be the outcome of the student. Any form of academic misconduct is a serious offense which will be penalised by being given a zero mark for the entire assessment in question or part of the assessment in question. If there is more than one guilty party as in the case of collusion, both you and your collusion partner(s) will be subjected to the same penalty.

D. Instruction to Students

Below is a list of some main topics covered in our lectures within the scope of Global Mandarin Study:

1. Patterns of spread of Mandarin and its implications for language planners in promoting Mandarin as an international language
2. Teaching Chinese as a Second Language and its implementation, especially among Southeast Asian nations
3. 'Dialect vs Mandarin' issues and its social impact within the trend of Mandarin globalization
4. Mandarin standardization among different Mandarins and its complications under the trend of Mandarin globalization
5. Mandarin language feature comparison and its analysis study, including comparative analysis in lexical and grammatical features

Choose a topic of discussion from the above and summarize some of the important issues and analyses covered in our lectures regarding the topic, including examples from the case studies discussed in our lectures regarding the topic.

After the summary, give your personal opinions on the current understanding of the scope of study in Global Mandarin Study as covered in our lectures, especially with respect to the topic you have chosen for summary. Suggestions for perspectives of opinions and discussions may include: 'Is the scope of study appropriate or is there a need for some fine tuning', 'Are there any topics of study yet to be covered under the current scope', 'Is the current discussions regarding these topics appropriate or is there a need for other points of view regarding these topics'.

(Take note that there are two required portions to your report. First is the summary of your chosen topic of discussion, and a second part on your opinions regarding the current scope of study. Equal weightage is given to both portions of the report.)
