A. Introduction/ Situation/ Background Information

This course facilitates international students to adapt and assimilate into the Malaysian living environment by developing skills in Malay language communications, involving mastery of Bahasa Melayu, in particular everyday conversational Malay.

B. Course Learning Outcomes (CLO) covered

At the end of this assessment, students are able to:

1. CLO 1: read and explain the meaning of the full text;
2. CLO 2: speak in various situations using simple sentences and compound sentences;
3. CLO 3: Organize ideas creatively and systematically in writing simple essay.

C. University Policy on Academic Misconduct

1. Academic misconduct is a serious offense in Xiamen University Malaysia. It can be defined as any of the following:
   i. Plagiarism is submitting or presenting someone else's work, words, ideas, data or information as your own intentionally or unintentionally. This includes incorporating published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed or electronic form into your work without acknowledging the source (the person and the work).
   ii. Collusion is two or more people collaborating on a piece of work (in part or whole) which is intended to be wholly individual and passed it off as own individual work.
   iii. Cheating is an act of dishonesty or fraud in order to gain an unfair advantage in an assessment. This includes using or attempting to use, or assisting another to use materials that are prohibited or inappropriate, commissioning work from a third party, falsifying data, or breaching any examination rules.

2. All the assessment submitted must be the outcome of the student. Any form of academic misconduct is a serious offense, which penalized by being given a zero mark for the entire assessment in question or part of the assessment in question. If there is more than one guilty party as in the case of collusion, both you and your collusion partner(s) subjected to the same penalty.

D. Task(s)

1. This assessment will be conducted in Week 10 during regular class hours. Each group will consist of up to 8 students.
2. You will sit for this quiz together with your team (8 people). The test will combine listening and writing skills through the following components:

   I. Dictation and Spelling Segment – You will listen to words, phrases and sentences and write them accurately.

   - Purpose: To test listening accuracy, spelling, grammar, and writing mechanics (punctuation, capitalization).

   II. Comprehension Questions – Answer questions based on the audio to test understanding.

   - Purpose: To evaluate how well you understand the meaning, context, and message of what you hear.

   III. Vocabulary Task – Identify and match words from the audio with their meanings or related images.

   - Purpose: To build vocabulary understanding in context.

3. Although conducted in groups, students will complete the test together under the same audio and questions. Each group will submit one answer sheet, but the focus remains on individual listening and writing performance within the group setting.

4. The total mark for this assessment is 30 marks, which contributes 15% to the overall course grade.

E. Instruction to Students

1. All group members must actively participate and contribute during the session.
2. The session will be conducted in Week 10 (1–4 December 2025). Please refer to your timetable for details.
3. Attendance is compulsory for all group members. Failure to attend without valid reason will negatively affect your evaluation.
4. Only one answer booklet should be submitted by the group leader. Ensure that all team members' names and ID numbers (as shown on student ID cards) are listed on the cover page, along with the Group Code.
5. All members must sign the Own Work Declaration section (page 2 of the cover page).
